

Symposium

Climate Change Calls for Action: Resilience and Adaptation to Unprecedented Extremes

When: 5 March 2020, 13.00-15.30

Location: University of Twente, Enschede (NL),
Building Waaier, room Prof. ir. M.P. Breedfeld/WA-2

- 13.00-13.10 Welcome by Prof. dr. Tatiana Filatova, Program Leader 4TU Strategic Resilience Program 'DeSIRE', and opening by Dr. Marjolein Dohmen-Janssen, Managing Director 4TU Centre for Resilience Engineering
- 13.10-13.35 Prof. dr. Gerard van de Steenhoven (UT), Director General Royal Netherlands' Meteorological Institute (KNMI)
Climate science and the development of resilient societies
- 13.35-14.00 Prof. dr. Suzanne Hulscher (UT), Member of the the Scientific Advisory Council for the Governmental Policy (WRR) and the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (KNAW)
Matching dynamics of rivers and seas with societal wishes under climate change
- 14.00-14.25 Prof. dr. Stefan Kuks (UT), Watergraaf Waterboard Vechtstromen and Chairman of Deltaprogramma Spatial Adaptation
The socio-economic challenge of climate adaptation
- 14.25-14.50 Prof. dr. Maarten van Aalst (UT), Director Red Cross Red Crescent Climate Centre and Lead Author at Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)
Rising risks in a changing climate — who are most vulnerable?
- 14.50-15.25 Panel discussion
- 15.25-15.30 Closure
- 15.30-15.45 Drinks and discussions
- 16.00-17.00 Changing climate – Changing behavior
Inaugural lecture – Professor Tatiana Filatova, CSTM/University of Twente.
- 17.00-18.00 Reception

4TU.Resilience

ipcc

UNIVERSITY OF TWENTE.